Georgia Perimeter (11-5, 3-1) moved into third place with a 74-71 victory against Middle Georgia (10-5, 3-2) on the road in Cochran. MGC scored the first five points and lead much of the opening period, building its largest margin at 31-21. However, Perimeter finished the period on a 13-1 run to earn a 34-32 edge at the break. The Jaguars then built their own 10-point advantage at 50-40 only to have MGC return the favor with a 10-0 run. The teams traded leads until a three-pointer by Mario Vasser put GPC in front at 62-61. After the Jaguars added a free throw, Vasser hit another triple to make it 66-61 Georgia Perimeter. Middle George fought back to force a 68-draw on a basket by Reggie Brown, but three-of-four free throws and a bucket by 6-5 sophomore Josh Relaford opened a five-point gap. MGC still had a chance in the final 30 seconds when 6-2 sophomore Devonte Davis was fouled. He made the first, missed the second, and Brown secured the rebound and put it back in with 27.6 seconds showing. The Warriors then forced Perimeter into a turnover, giving them a chance to tie, but missed the shot. MGC fouled 6-1 freshman Brandon Jenkins in the waning seconds. He made the second of two free shots, but Middle Georgia's three-point attempt to tie failed. Top performances:
